Keeping up with The Jacksons

Promoting their shows Celebrating 50 Years and their official book Legacy, The Jacksons did many interviews in 2017 that were published in newspapers and news outlets worldwide, such as PEOPLE, Express, Cambridge News, Grow Folks Music, Montreal gazette, The Guardian, The Times, The Sun, Zeit, HUMO, Billboard and many many more. In the interviews given, Jackie, Tito, Marlon and Jermaine mostly talk about their legacy en recall life on the road as brothers and highlights of their careers. Tito made headlines as well in the United Kingdom and the United States where he was promoting his album Tito Time.

Jackie is mentoring the band Gold Lemonade as well as DBL (Donny B. Lord) and helping them to launch their music careers. Jackie shared pictures of him in the studio and on the set of music video shoots. DBL is a rap artist from the island Saint Lucia and Gold Lemonade is a hip hop EDM group and "pirate gang" looking to refresh the game. Make sure to follow Jackie on Instagram for the latest updates on his projects!

On International Mental Health Day, 10 October 2017, Julian Campbell Foundation launched their Wellbeing Movement with a Flash mob at London King's Cross Station featuring Tito as the foundation's ambassador and Entity, world dance champions between the ages of 12 and 23 years old. JCF's goal is to improve the lives of young people with mood disorders by providing practical and emotional support to them and their families.

The Jacksons stopped by at various radio stations in the UK when they were doing their Summer Tour. Jermaine stopped by at Belgian radio station Joe, Dutch Radio 10 and he did a phoner interview for Belgian radio Nostalgie. Tito did tons and tons of radio interviews throughout 2017, especially in the United Kingdom and a couple in The States promoting his album.
